E. SKARIN & G. ALGOT Lay Cornerstone

At noon on Saturday, June 20th, the first event in what was to be an extremely busy Official Opening Weekend took place. Directors, radio, T.V. and press officials, sub-contractors, consular representatives and guests gathered at the luncheon table for a meal of delicious Danish open-face sandwiches, fruit, and cheese. Coffee was served at the attractive round tables bordering the dining room.

Promptly at 2:00 o'clock the Directors, Consular and Government representatives, along with Mr. G. J. Algot and Mr. Emil Skarin, took their places to the right and left of the main entrance, while girls in colourful national costume carrying the flags of the five Scandinavian countries and of Canada also took their places on the platform.

Directors and representatives were introduced by K. L. Svidal, and Pastor Svenningsen offered the Invocation. After a short dedication by S. A. Sorenson, Mr. Skarin and Mr. Algot, two of Edmonton district's Scandinavian pioneers, laid the cornerstone of the Scandinavian Centre, the only memorial of its kind in Western Canada.

Following the simple and dignified ceremony, the keys to the Centre were presented to Scandinavian Centre President, S. A. Sorenson, by Rolf Vollan, General Contractor. The doors were then officially open for inspection by the public.

A receiving line of S. A. Sorenson, P. N. Christensen, H. Markstrom, J. Rama and L. Oddson greeted the large number of guests as they entered the main doors and were guided to the guest book table where they were asked to sign their names.

After looking over the main floor with its gracious foyer and spacious dining room, all beautifully lighted and furnished, guests were directed to the basement area where coffee and pastries were served.

This was an afternoon for which hundreds of shareholders had worked and waited for many years. The Scandinavian Centre, a memorial to all Scandinavian Pioneers, is a source of tremendous satisfaction to all of us.

Who Cares?

Father: "Young man, we turn the lights off at 10:30 around here."

Young Man: "That's O.K., sir. Mary and me won't be reading."

Government representatives, Consular representatives, representatives of Skarin and Mr. G. J. Algot, assembled to lay the cornerstone before the Architect and the General Contractor, Directors, and Mr. Emil the doors were officially opened.

CENTRE OPENS

In Gratitude and Appreciation

The Board of Directors and Shareholders of the Scandinavian Centre wish to thank each and every person who so willingly gave of their time and efforts in making the Official Opening Weekend of the Centre so successful and enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nielsen were the gracious host and hostess at all affairs; they both worked very hard to make everyone who entered the doors welcome.

The charming ladies who attended the guest books and did their part in directing guests: Mrs. Halberg, Mrs. Oddson, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Svidal, Mrs. Sorenson, Mrs. Markstrom, Mrs. Rama, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Salomaa, Mrs. Larson.

The wives of the presidents of our five affiliated organizations, Mrs. Eric Pierre, Mrs. Peter Sather, Mrs. Gunnar Thorvaldson, Mrs. Tony Salomaa, Mrs. Peter Sorenson, and Mrs. S. A. Sorenson, poured hundreds of cups of coffee at the Sunday Coffee Party, and we were pleased to present them with corsages.

We are grateful to all our talented artists who appeared on various occasions over the course of the weekend, and to Vic Lillo, Carl Elgstrand, Lilly Taylor, Ellen Larson and Erik Luhtala who provided background music during both Saturday and Sunday.

And thanks also to the lovely girls in costume who worked so faithfully whenever and wherever they were needed.

We also add our thanks to the following people from whom beautiful floral tributes were received: Scandia Bakery; Vasa Lodge Skandia; Danish Society "Dania"; Sons of Norway; European Art Salon; Otto Sundahl and Else and Martin Lindberg. Their flowers made striking centerpieces and added grace to various tables.

Encouragement in the form of telegrams arrived from:

Mrs. F. Timperly, President of the Edmonton Citizenship Council. Sarah Haapakoski Hendrickson of New York.

Harold Olaf Lee, President of Sons of Norway, Calgary.

Swedish Lodge, Sons of Norway, and the Danish Canadian Club in Calgary.

Mr. Emil Skarin and Mr. G. J. Algot lay the cornerstone dedicating the Scandinavian Centre to Scandinavian Pioneers, the only memorial of its kind in Western Canada.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

BY S. A. SORENSON

FOUR MEMORABLE DAYS — JUNE 20, 21, 22, 23 . . .

It was a pleasure and an honour for me to officially open our fine new building shortly after 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 20, 1964. Upwards of 2,000 people entered the front doors and enjoyed the luxurious surroundings. Some came to casually inspect the building during the afternoon; others came to the Banquet and Ball on Saturday evening. An even larger number came on Sunday afternoon for the Coffee Party. An almost new crowd of Scandinavian holiday-seekers came on Monday night to the Send-Off Party for the Stockholm and Copenhagen Chartered Flights. Then, on Tuesday evening, the hard-working Board of Directors met in the Board Room to take stock of the tremendously successful opening, and to begin laying plans for the future.

Everyone who visited the Centre was plainly thrilled with the luxury and refinement of the new building. Nowhere in Edmonton could such plush surroundings be found — the comfortable imported Danish chairs and teak tables, the carpeting, the lighting, the colours, the Viking plaque, and the beautiful glass etching of the five swans symbolizing the five Scandinavian countries — to mention only a few of the many beautiful furnishings.

THE HONOR ROLL BANQUET — JULY 24 . . .

It was regrettable that so many were unable to obtain tickets for the Banquet on June 24th. To give every shareholder an opportunity to dine and dance, in the new "VIKING ROOM" the directors decided to hold an Honor Roll Banquet on July 24th. Ceremonies will center around the presentation to shareholders of the Honor Roll Book — a rich leather-bound commemorative book which will include the names of all who contributed money up to June 20, 1964, to make possible the building of the new Centre. Tom Nielsen, our manager, is in charge of arrangements. Be sure you get your tickets early from Tom Nielsen or any of the directors. Tickets will be handled on a first-come-first-served basis.

HOSTESS SERVICE WILL BE PROVIDED AT CENTRE . . .

When you visit the Centre during the afternoon, you will be greeted by our hostess, Mrs. Vera Nielsen. If you wish, you may relax in the Viking Room where good Scandinavian coffee and delicacies may be purchased.

COPENHAGEN FLIGHT LEAVES INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

Eighty-nine happy passengers got off to Copenhagen at 9:00 p.m. on Friday, June 26, 1964. Pastor Svenningsen took over from S. A. Sorenson as Flight Director.

ELK ISLAND SCANDINAVIAN DAY PLANNED — JULY 26

All plans are made for a big day at Elk Island Park on Annual Scandinavian Day, says acting Social Director, Knut L. Svidal.

The Cultural Activities Committee is providing fine entertainment from the bandshell at the Park. The program is under the direction of Carl Elgstrand.

Danish handball will be featured, as well as children's sports.

HOLIDAYS . . .

As I write this column, I have decided to take a rest and a holiday with my family.

Our daughter Betty and her two children have just returned to Brantford, Ontario, after spending a holiday with us and friends in Edmonton. I took her to the Centre, and she thoroughly enjoyed herself. May I suggest that, when friends come to see you during the holiday season, you take them to the Centre and show them what we are doing here in Edmonton.

Will see you when I return from vacation.

ANNUAL SCANDINAVIAN DAY PLANNED

This exciting day at Elk Island Park will commence with children's games and prizes at 1:00 p.m. An outstanding display of gymnastics will be held at 2:30 under the direction of Carsten Carlsen, and at 3:00 p.m. the program from the bandshell will begin. Mr. Jimmy McDonald will be in charge of children's races and games, and Carl Elgstrand will arrange the bandshell program.

A handball tournament is to be arranged by Mr. Peter Sorensen for the enjoyment of everyone.

The bandshell program will consist of talent from each of our five affiliate organizations, and we are hoping to have an item or two from outlying communities.

Let's make this the biggest and best Annual Scandinavian Day yet! . . . See you on SUNDAY, JULY 26th — at ELK ISLAND PARK.

Syttende Mai Fest

The 150th anniversary of Norway's Independence was celebrated by Sons of Norway in classic style, on May 16, at the Masonic Temple, with an attendance of 250. A reception was held in the auditorium from 6:30 to 7:30. The Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, Hon. J. Percy Page, and Mrs. Page, made a brief appearance. Following the reception, the guests were escorted to the banquet room by ladies in National Costume. A Smorgasbord was tastefully set up with traditional dishes, Norwegian meat balls, pickled herring, baked salmon, ham, turkey, etc. Centred on the head table was a spring bouquet flanked by tall red tapers with rows of miniature Norwegian flags, accenting the occasion. Seated at the head table were the Hon. Mr. R. Reiersen, representative of the province, and Mrs. Reiersen; Mr. A. Johannessen, Norwegian Vice-Consul, and Mrs. Johannessen; Alderman M. Weinlos, representative of the City, and Mrs. Weinlos; First Lt. B. Harris; Mr. and Mrs. K. Svidal; Mr. P. Sather, President of Solglyt Lodge, and Mrs. Sather. Mr. Knut Svidal was Master of Ceremonies. Mr. Sather gave the address of welcome, and speeches were given by the attending dignitaries. The Day's tribute was written in poem and read by Mrs. E. Skuggedal, and was royally received. A toast to the ladies was given by Mr. S. Sorenson, President of the Scandinavian Centre. A male trio, Angus MacDonald, Erling Skuggedal and Jim MacDonald, sang an appropriate number, 'Norway, in Red, White and Blue'. Group singing was led by Mr. E. Skuggedal. The flag parade, Ja Vi, Elsker, followed by the Grand March was led by Mr. and Mrs. N. Nilsen and Mr. and Mrs. E. Skuggedal and four small flag bearers, Inez Hovde, Sharon Sorenson, Jon-Eric Borgerson and John McRoberts. The guests returned to the auditorium for dancing until midnight. Music supplied by Lilly Taylor's orchestra.

Highlights of the evening were the presentation of the Sons of Norway Ski Trophy to Mr. Gordon Lund of Camrose, and Honorary pins to four Lodge members, Mrs. Annie Herstad, Mrs. Ragna Arntzen, Mrs. Mina MacDonald and Mr. Schang Halberg. Other special guests were 11 Norwegian Airforce boys who are in training at Penhold.

The Smorgasbord was prepared by Mrs. R. Sivertsen, Mrs. N. Navereth, Mr. A. Searl, Mrs. Swetitch, Mrs. K. Amdam, Mrs. E. Searl, Mr. N. Navereth and Mr. R. Lauson, and the floral arrangements by Lydia Navereth. Mrs. M. MacDonald, Social Convener, wishes to extend sincere thanks to all for their co-operation in having made this special occasion such a success.

Ragna Sivertsen . . .

Ragna Olsen Notland was born on July 2, 1909 in Masterham, a little place tucked away in the area of Haugesund, Norway. At the youthful age of 18 she decided to look to the new world for fulfilment of her dreams. She boarded the Stavaengerfjord with many other immigrants of Norwegian, Swedish and Danish extraction, all bound for Canada. Time on board ship was gay and passed quickly, part of this was due to the company of a young Swedish gentleman. They could not understand each other's language too well, but the young the world over have their own language.

The boat docked in Halifax July 28, 1928 and from there she came West by train to Morrin, Alberta, still in the company of her friend, but here there was a parting of the ways. Ragna lived with an uncle, Mr. A. Notland at Morrin. The following fall and spring she attended Camrose Lutheran College, taking the Newcomers' Course offered at that time; returning to her uncle's farm on completion of her studies. She spent the winter of 1929 in Calgary where she joined the Sons of Norway, Valhalla Lodge, and had her membership transferred to Edmonton in 1930, when she came here to live.

It was while attending a Sons of Norway Whist party in the South Side Orange Hall that she met a handsome Norwegian, by the name of Knut Sivertsen. This meeting soon blossomed into a romance which culminated at the altar a year later. The marriage took place November 27, 1932 in Edmonton Central Lutheran Church, then known as the Norwegian Church. They made their first home in a suite in the up-town section, later moving to 9904 - 105 Street, the present address.

Knut and Ragna Sivertsen became well known in Edmonton, as they took part in many community activities. Her husband was for a time President of the Park Allen Community League, but the Sons of Norway Lodge was their chief centre of interest. Plays were produced under the leadership of President Fred Hoyme and Ragna was a member of the cast. She also was active in folk dancing which was popular at that time, taking part in the Carnival of Spring, held in Calgary and Edmonton in 1930-31.

Three sons, Gordon, Keith and Robert were born to the Sivertsens. Many were the happy hours this family spent together, and some were anxious, as when Robert at the age of 4 one day wandered away from his father and became lost. He was found at the police station in tears, not having enjoyed his lonely adventure. Son Gordon was the sports enthusiast. He was goalie on the hockey team when the MacBeth Agencies took the South Side Bantam Hockey Championship. The family life was disrupted at the death of father Sivertsen in 1957 after a lengthy illness. The responsibilities of educating the three boys and the business of two apartments was now Ragna's alone.

Today she can look back with pride, as her boys have completed University, married and added 5 grandchildren to her family. She still has her own business, but this has not been enough for her limitless Viking energy. Her activities in the Sons of Norway Lodge throughout the years have been many and varied. She has held the offices of Secretary, Financial Secretary, is at present Assistant Social Director, and is also on the Board of Directors for the Scandinavian Centre. She has been president of the Ladies'

Rev. P. Petursson Retires August 31st

Bilingual Phil Petursson, who has served the English-speaking and Icelandic-speaking Unitarians of Winnipeg for 35 years, is retiring from the Ministry on August 31. Phil has also conducted weddings and funerals and given addresses at smaller outposts in rural Manitoba and Saskatchewan; Gimli, Arborg, Wynyard and Riverton.

He has, in addition, served for many years as Regional Director for the Western Canada Unitarian Conference, and has been, since its founding, a member of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Unitarian Council.

The Dean of Canadian Unitarian Ministers, Mr. Petursson came to Winnipeg in 1929, and has spent all of his most active years in the service of the Winnipeg Congregation and in the service of free religion in the Prairies.

Auxiliary and with them catered to many Lutefisk suppers as well as other functions.

She took one trip back to the homeland in 1958 for a short visit. Her parents, six sisters and one brother reside in Norway. Three uncles reside in the Drumheller area and one aunt in the United States.

On entering the Centre, guests were greeted by a receiving line of S. A. Sorenson (who is not in the above picture), P. N. Christensen, H. Markstrom, J. Rama, and L. Oddson.

Shown above are some of the guests at the banquet on June which marked the Official Opening of the Scandinavian Centre.

Sons Of Norway
Hold "Hawaiian Nite"

Members and friends of Sons of Norway, and members and friends of Sunray Jr. Lodge, donned leis for an evening in Hawaiian style. Sisters Selma Sorenson and Rose Svidal hostesses for the occasion, were dressed in grass skirts. After a Hawaiian style lunch, featuring pineapple and other fresh island fruits, a delightful Hawaiian princess entertained the guests with several songs and dance numbers. The princess later turned out to be Brother Joe Lineham. From the stage beneath the palm tree, Jimmy McDonald sang a variety of Hawaiian melodies. Sister Hazel Lubbers and Brother Chuck Albinson later joined Jimmy and provided dance music.

Under the direction of the committee, several Hawaiian type games were arranged, with everyone participating.

DIRECTORS DECIDE TO CONTINUE SHARE-SELLING

At a meeting on June 23, directors decided to ask all canvassers to continue share-selling in an endeavour to reach the goal of 1,000 shares. With 543 shares sold, another 457 shares are needed to pay completely for the new Centre and its furnishings.

At the Official Opening Banquet all the canvasser's names were put in a box; each canvasser's name appeared in the box as many times as the number of shares he had sold. Bert Hadvick of Whitehorse drew the names of the lucky winners of shares. They were: Mr. A. H. Albinson; Mrs. Lydia Naversteth; Mrs. Vera Nielsen; Mr. W. Myhre; Mr. R. Roos; Mr. M. J. Rama; Mr. E.

Bergquist; Miss V. Kvarnberg; Mrs. E. Comin.

Many canvassers were just getting going when the campaign closed. There was Gunnar Thorvaldson who sold five shares in the last week; he was substituting for Jack Henrickson who has not been feeling as well as he should. Gunnar liked selling so well that he wanted the campaign to continue. The Centre has good news for him . . .

VERSE TO THE DAY THE SCANDINAVIAN CENTRE

Ten years ago they came together, a few dedicated men and women.

The goal for them all was to help build a hall
A symbol of friendship, culture and art
For the Swede, Dane, Finn, Iclander and the Norwegian.
Where all these nations could enter — Yes, I mean the Scandinavian Centre.

You might ask yourself
how can this be done
of money there was none.
So what did they do? Started a Campaign to sell shares,
To you, to me, to Scandinavians everywhere.
But you are so right
this could not be done overnight.
It took time, energy and patience — I am sure to give up has been a temptation.
They wanted to build soon, but the cost was high,
So every year they tried and tried.
It took many meetings to do all the planning.
The Scandapade with its pleasure and work.
Coffee, pastry and dance
There you meet Ola, Sven and Hans.
The Scandinavian News, the Flight that took you home
For six wonderful weeks, your heart was filled with sentiment
And you got roses in your cheeks.
The Elk Island picnic, stagershow, singing, folkdance,
Gymnastics, and Elgstrand's bonde music.
If you look back, take a long, good look, and see
What has been done by all these people who have come and gone.

Their dedication for their work,
And all the nice folks who bought a share
Are the ones we can thank that we are here.
The Swedes: Med du gamla du fria.
The Danes: Med sitt yndige land.
The Finns: Med sin Soumie sang.
The Icelanders: Med Gud war lands.
The Norwegians: Som elsker sitt land.
They are all here today to join in friendship
For the country they came from
And with love for the country they live in.
So please, let us enter and enjoy the Scandinavian Centre.

Buford Lodge Holds Meeting

The May meeting of Buford Lodge No. 577 was called to order at 8:30 p.m. One new member was initiated.

It was decided to donate $10.00 as prizes to Junior Vasa Swedish lessons winners.

Members agreed to hold a weiner roast on June 26th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albin Markstedt. This was to include all members and their families.

The members were glad to hear that Mrs. Nora Westermarck, who at present is living in Vancouver, has been visited by the Sick Committee of Nonan Lodge No. 413, and they have found her health much improved.

Several Buford members attended the weiner roast sponsored by Nordstjarnan at Falun, where a wonderful time was had by all.

The dance at Willow Creek sponsored by Buford Junior Lodge was well attended. Our thanks to all who helped make it the huge success that it was, and also to the "Blue Jackets" who provided the music.

The children are looking forward to "Children's Week" at Pigeon Lake. Floyd Morin is taking down names of all who are interested.

TEN YEARS OF SCANDINAVIAN CO-OPERATION

For those of you who could not be present at the Banquet and Ball which marked the Official Opening of the Scandinavian Centre, below is the talk given on that evening by S. A. Sorenson, President of the Scandinavian Centre:

In 1003 A.D., Leif Erickson made his historic discovery of this continent, and since Scandinavians are known to be slow but sure, it was not until the year 1953 A.D., 950 years after the discovery made by our famous ancestor, that Scandinavians of this area decided to build for themselves this memorial to our pioneers, to whom we owe so much.

Most Scandinavians like to claim Leif Erickson as their own. The Danes say that since Greenland is their colony, and since it was here that Leif Erickson lived and died, he therefore belongs to them. The Icelanders say that since Leif Erickson's father, Eric the Red, settled in Iceland, Leif should be considered Icelandic. Not at all, say the Norwegians, because after all, Eric the Red was a true-blooded Viking who left the shore of Norway to found himself a new Kingdom; thus his son, Leif, must certainly be Norwegian. After all, say the Swedish folk, since Norway and Sweden were one country for a period of history, Leif Erickson is just as much theirs. The Finnish are more modest and lay no claim whatever. But one thing we are all agreed upon . . .

LEIF ERICKSON WAS SCANDINAVIAN.

It is as Scandinavians that we have built this fine new Centre. Many, many Scandinavians have co-operated in the last ten years to make this Centre a reality. This afternoon we paid tribute to all the paid workers; this evening I want to pay tribute to all the unpaid workers.

There were preliminary meetings which laid the foundation for the new organization. At those meetings there were men who attended but did not become directors: Eric Luhlala, S. Halberg, J. Gleerup, A. J. Johannessen, Henry Logan, and S. O. Hadvick. Incidentally, this week I received a long-distance telephone call from Whitehorse in the Yukon; It was none other than Bert Hadvick. He had received the News and was so elated by our accomplishment that he said: "I'm taking the first plane out to attend your opening ceremonies, and here he is.

Once the idea was born, it fell upon the duly elected directors to carry the ball. Of the nine directors on that first board, all are still in Edmonton with the exception of Chris Bendsen who left Edmonton on a continental tour and never returned to stay. There was John Rama, steady and sure, who, though normally the quiet type, can reach oratorical heights on "We are all Scandinavians", and "The Sauna Bath". He served twice as president of our association.

Mons Eliasson, second president, is well versed in the intricacies of The Alberta Co-operative Act. His wife, Margaret, insists on the rule of law in all her association work, and you can be sure she makes Mons toe the mark. Margaret has the honor of being the only lady on that first board, and she also served well as secretary.

Then there was Eskil Carlson, a guiding light through the years; Erik Pedersen of radio fame; and O. S. Franzen, our only Consular representative. And last, but certainly not least, Mr. Emil Skarin; through his kindly and learned manner he has made his contribution felt throughout the years.

It was my pleasure and privilege to be chosen president of the first board. They were grand people to work with. No one can ever tell me that Scandinavians cannot work together.

Through the years, directors have retired and new ones have been added. Each has made their contributions felt in one way or another. There is Earl Hansen, who served as director and then as president; his legal advice has been invaluable. Jack Luoma, always smiling, but always a special smile when he has an application for a share tucked away in his pocket. Otto Sundahl, although elected to the board in 1955, was unable to serve for too long. Then there is youthful-looking Knut Svidal; in spite of his youth, his advice was often listened to. He master-minded the Exhibition floats and excels as a Master of Ceremonies. He served twice as president. Then there is Tom Nielsen who can tell you exactly how to sell a share, but somehow his wife, Vera, gets the signature on the line and closes most of the sales. Tom first served on the board and then made way for Vera. As business manager of the Scandinavian News, Mrs. Vera Nielsen put this publication on a paying basis.

Gus Larson, a gentleman all the way, is a very exacting carpenter and construction man. He has been in charge of the construction of the floats and served as sixth president. And we shall always remember Anders Anderson of Wabamun for his fine model of the Scandinavian Centre.

Now will you pause with me while we pay tribute to two directors who are no longer with us. I refer to Mr. Art Andersen, an ardent worker for the Centre through whose perseverance the Scandinavian News was born, and Mr. Knut Sivertsen, a real champion and a real worker. We are grateful for their real contributions to the Centre. May their memories live on.

As I reminisce back over the years, it always seemed that the right men came along at the right times. There was Harold Halldorson, bank manager, who kept the treasury faithfully for a number of years; Harold Markstrom, steady and good-natured, who persevered until he found this wonderful site on which to build our Centre; Harold is immediate past-president. H. A. (Gus) Hansen served as Social Director at Annual Scandinavian Night in January of each year; he is presently presenting a brief on Biculturalism and Bilingualism on our behalf.

Then there are Carl Quitzau, Tony Salomaa and Victor Salo, all solid but quiet men whom you felt you could always count on, but because of their work they could not be as active as they wished.

Per Norman Christensen, youthful, outspoken car sales manager whose artistic sense has made a lasting contribution to the beauty and fine appearance of the interior of the Centre; Don Shaw, an astute insurance manager, who did considerable cost accounting work for us and managed our 1962 Exhibition booth;

S. J. Johnson, now of Minburn, who added life to our planning committee; Eric Lefsrud, well-known lawyer, who kept our books for a period of time; Hans Kristensen, who pioneered the first Charter Flight to Scandinavia for us, and is now in Denmark organizing more flights for Wardair Ltd.

On February 18, 1964, seven new directors were elected to bring the present board to 15 in number. The former stag parties — I mean meetings — were broken up with the election of two ladies — Mrs. Linnea Lodge, who became our new secretary and has written volumes of minutes, and Mrs. Ragna Sivertsen who just loves organizing the kitchen work and is in charge of this year's Exhibition booth.

Gordon Pearson has taken the landscaping problem well in hand, while Ellsworth Halberg of the Government Treasury Department is bearing down on accounts receivable. We are pleased to have Consular representation on the present board in the person of Mr. Knud Holm-Pedersen, Danish Vice Consul, who is presently in Denmark.

Bill Halldorson, elected to the board in February, has been unable to serve due to ill health. We wish Bill a speedy recovery and look forward to his association on the board. Leif Oddson, who substituted for Bill, has accepted an appointment on the board.

I. E. (Don) Johnson, as over-all planning committee chairman, says he has worked harder on this project than on any of his many projects; and of course, he has been receiving top wages.

This association appreciates the untiring efforts of all directors, past and present.

I would be remiss if I did not mention the contribution of the officers — Chris Dreyer, immediate past auditor, has kept the books in ship-shape for a good number of years. We welcome newly appointed auditor, Joe Moger. Mrs. Elsie Comin became our bookkeeper on May 1st and is doing an outstanding job. And there is Mrs. Eileen Peterson, our efficient and capable assistant secretary; I wish to pay personal tribute to her — for without her assistance, my work would have been doubly difficult.

And of course, everyone must know our congenial, newly-appointed manager, Tom Nielsen, and we all wish him success in his new position.

I am sure that all of us will take

They have been our public relations people . . . the carriers of goodwill to more and more Scandinavians. The Icelandic Society held its annual picnic on Sunday, June 14th, at Victoria Park. In spite of showers, all types of races were run by both children and adults, and prizes were given to all participants, with ribbons for the winners. Mrs. Ruth McNaughton was crowned Fjallpona (Maid of the Mountain) for the coming year by president Mr. Leif Oddson. Ruth made a suitable reply in accepting the title. She was attended by four pretty young princesses, Misses Lori and Leoni Oddson, Gail Mitchell and Beverly Arason. Rulla Pylsa

We have decided to feature an Icelandic recipe from time to time in the Scandinavian News. This one is for rolled lamb, or

RULLA PYLSA

- 1 - 2 lb. lamb flank, boned
- 2 tbsp. salt
- ½ tsp. saltpeter
- ¾ tsp. ground cloves
- ¾ tsp. ground allspice
- ¾ tsp. pepper
- 1 medium sized onion, chopped.

Ask your butcher to bone the meat but leave in one piece. Lay this piece flat on the table with boned side up. Mix the salt, saltpeter, cloves, allspice and pepper and spread over the flank. Saltpeter is necessary, for it makes the meat turn pink in color; otherwise it will be brown. Chop onion and sprinkle over flank. Then roll it up as you would a jelly roll. Sew up both ends and the loose edges with needle and thread, then wind string tightly all around the roll. Salt outside of the flank and roll in wax paper. Set in refrigerator and leave for 3 to 7 days, but not less than 3. The spices must work through. At the end of that time place in cooking pot, cover with water. Bring to a boil and then turn heat down and let simmer for 1½ hours. Remove and cool. Place between two surfaces and place a heavy weight on top. Leave overnight. Next day remove string, slice and serve cold.

Our Talented Artists

The following talented Scandinavian artists added to the Banquet program held on Saturday, June 20, and the Coffee Party held on Sunday June 21, during the Official Opening Weekend of the Scandinavian Centre, and to them we offer bouquets and the hope that we will see and hear a great deal more of them in the future:

Mrs. Margret Decosse — who sang "Draumlandid".

Kaj Hansen — whose monologue was "About Scandinavia".

Lilly Taylor and Carl Elgstrand — who played an accordian due — "Karl's Polka".

Mrs. Irene Hovde — who sang "Immigrant's Song".

Eric Luhtala and Ulla Vesalainen — who played "Valse Triste".

Miss Ana Lise Sorensen and Company — ballet.

Miss Una Skuggedal — Verse to the Day (published elsewhere in this paper).

Ellen Larson and Lilly Taylor — violin and piano selection.

EXHIBITION BOOTH

In hope of raising a sizable amount of money, and because of the public relations and recognition we receive through such an effort, the Scandinavian Centre will again sponsor a booth at this year's "Klondike Days." If together we can build a Centre such as is now a reality, surely together we can organize and maintain a successful booth at the Exhibition. "Together" is the key word, because we will need all the help we can get in the way of donations of baking and of actual physical help at the grounds. The exhibition will be fairly early in July, and we must organize now in order to make this a profitable venture.

The booth will be convened by Mrs. R. Sivertsen and Mr. Alvin Searl, and it is their hope that the profit realized will be in the neighbourhood of $1,000.00. They cannot do this alone. If you are able to assist in this worthwhile project please phone Mrs. Sivertsen at 422-5990; we will be most grateful for your help.
